

ENCHANTING CARIBBEAN

Experience unparalelled adventure with our unique itineraries.

13 Days / 12 Nights

DAY 1 - COLON, PANAMA

Our adventure starts today. We will be at the meeting point by 16:00 to transfer by bus to the Port of Colon where we will board the Klara. After embarking and settling into our cabins, we will gather for cocktails to meet our fellow travellers, followed by dinner.

Meals: Dinner

DAY 2 - SAN BLAS ISLANDS, PANAMA

Today we will visit an island in Guna Yala, also known as San Blas, home of the Gunas. Their territory consists of an archipelago of 365 islands and a 373-kilometre-long narrow strip of land on the east coast of Caribbean Panama. Mosty islands are inhabited, the larger islands Aguja, Guanidup, Chichimewi and Wel Provenir are home to the indigenous people.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

DAY 3 - AT SEA

As we continue to sail towards Columbia, you will have the opportunity to enjoy the day at sea, you can either just relax or attend some of our educational presentations about the places we will be visiting.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

DAY 4 - CARTAGENA, COLUMBIA

After a day at sea, we are in for a treat as we visit the historical city of Cartagena, with its old town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Take the day to discover a maze of cobblestoned streets, colonial houses, and churches at almost every corner. Soak in the vibrant colours of the markets, artisans' shops, and brightly painted houses. Take a break from your wanderings and try a limonada de coco (with or without rum).

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

13 Days / 12 Nights

DAY 5 - SANTA MARTA

Today, we will visit Santa Marta, a Columbian city declared a Biosfere Reserva and World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1979. Kogi, Arhuaco, Kankuamo and Wiwa indigenous ethnic groups call this city home.

Take a walk through Tayrona, the cultural heart of the city and its colonial treasures. Visit the Parque Nacional Natural Tayrona where you will learn about their fascinating culture as well as enjoying beautiful beaches with crystal clear waters, white sands, and unforgettable sunrises. No visit is complete without checking El Rodadero, where the sand is slightly coarse and doesn't stick to your feet.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

DAY 6 - AT SEA

As we sail towards Aruba, you will have the opportunity to enjoy the day at sea, you can either just relax or attend some of our educational presentations about the places we will be visiting.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

DAY 7 - ORANJESTAD, ARUBA

Named after "Huis van Oranje", the name of the Dutch Royal family in 1824, Oranjestad is the capital of Aruba. Downtown features plenty of traditional multicoloured buildings, museums, restaurants and great shopping on Main Street, Renaissance Marketplace and more. Alongside the marina you will find merchants selling local arts, crafts, and souvenirs.

Visit Fort Zoutman, the oldest building on the island, built in 1798 to protect the city from pirates. See the Willem III Tower once a lighthouse, and the museum which houses an exhibit showcasing the history of the island.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

13 Days / 12 Nights

DAY 8 - WILLENSTAD, CURACAO

Today we are exploring Willenstad, settled by the Dutch in 1634. A well-preserved colonial trading settlement, set in a natural harbour. The capital of the island nation of Curacao has four historic quarters, Punda, Otrobanda, Pietermaai and Scharloo, Punda being the oldest part of the city. Willemstad's architecture is as unique as its story. This UNESCO World Heritage City has an array of its original colourful buildings, which include authentic architectural elements.

Have lunch at the old market or schedule a visit to the Curacao Liqueur Distillery at Landhuis Chobolobo, experience and learn about the distillation process of the world-famous Blue Curacao Liqueur.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

DAY 9 - KRALENDIJK, BONAIRE

Today we visit Kralendijk the capital of Bonaire, a Dutch settlement in the Caribbean Sea. Colorful architecture and pristine natural beauty will charm you. Visit The Bonaire Museum displaying archaeological finds, shells, and old photos. Bonaire National Marine Park, boasts a coral reef making it the ideal home for tropical fish, stretching west to Klein Bonaire Island, where the sandy beaches provide a nesting ground for sea turtles.

The salt ponds in the South of the Island, with its pink waters, white salt mountains and blue ocean are an amazing treat. A visit to the slave huts will provide a better understanding of Bonaire's history.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

DAY 10/11 - AT SEA

As we sail towards Nevis, you will have the opportunity to enjoy some downtime, perhaps a time to reflect on the beautiful places visited and experiences you have had in the last week. We will of course also provide some insight into our next destination.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

13 Days / 12 Nights

DAY 12 - NEVIS

The first indigenous habitants were the Arawak and the Carib. The Arawak named the Island Dulcina (sweet island), the Carib named it Oualie (land of beautiful waters). A few centuries later as it became a leading sugar producer, the name changed to Nevis (Queen of the Caribbees).

The Botanical gardens are worth a visit, created by an American couple Joseph and Martha Murphy, showcases sculptures, fountains, a replica of a Great House, a tropical rain forest conservatory design at the image of the conservatory at Kew Gardens in England.

One will come away certain that Nevis is the hidden gem of the Caribbean Islands. Historical sites, ruins dating back to early 17th century, breathtaking landscapes, spectacular views from the top of Nevis Peak, bamboo fields, cocoa trees. rainforest waterfalls - Nevis has it all!

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

DAY 13 - ST. KITTS

Today with St Kitts in sight, we say goodbye to the crew and our new friends. A transfer to the airport or town will be provided where you can begin your next adventure!

Meals: Breakfast